June 2019 Employee of the Month

Officer Steve Bangert

Officer Bangert was nominated for this award due to his life saving actions on May 4, 2019. He was dispatched to a residence in reference to a “check the well being.” He had received information from the caller that a female may want to harm herself. Upon arrival, from outside the residence, Officer Bangert was able to observe multiple prescription bottles that were empty lying next to the couch. He also observed someone lying on the couch under covers. After unsuccessfully attempting to raise the subject from outside, Officer Bangert made the decision to get breaching equipment from his squad car. He forced entry and located a semi-conscious female on the couch and learned she had taken a large amount of medication. The female was transported to Blessing Hospital and admitted. Life in our world today seems to push too many people beyond their capabilities. Too often they make the decision to give up and take their own lives. Officer Bangert is a great police officer who cares about our citizens. His experience and observations, coupled with quick thinking and action, allowed Officer Bangert to correctly assess the situation, summon medical assistance, and save a woman’s life.
